GREATER GOOD showed the way into the first turn, gave up the advantage soon after, settled, asked for some run on the outside into the stretch, engaged the leader with a sixteenth to run, wore that foe down. ROCKPORT HARBOR bobbed then bumped with COPY MY NOTES soon after, moved outside, took over and quickly got clear before a quarter, set the pace while firmly in hand, responded when challenged deep stretch, gave ground grudgingly. BATSON CHALLENGE off the pace, moved with the winner toward the front exiting the final turn, altered course to the rail, not enough late. COPY MY NOTES bumped by the runner up just after the start, went evenly placed and was no real threat. JAZZY GALLOP lacked speed, failed to rally. AFLEET ALEX away in good order, chased the leader toward the inside, asked for run into the stretch, gave way suddenly three sixteenths out.
