

CHAMPIONS, KENTUCKY DERBY WINNERS

Since 1971, Eclipse Awards are bestowed upon the Thoroughbred horses and individuals whose outstanding achievements in North America have earned them the title of Champion in their respective divisions.

Those annual awards are voted by National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA), Daily Racing Form and the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters (NTWAB).

The Eclipse Awards are named after the great 18th-Century racehorse and foundation sire Eclipse, who began racing at age five and was undefeated in 18 starts, including eight walkovers. Eclipse sired the winners of 344 races, including three Epsom Derbies.

For more than a century, annual Champions have been chosen by various bodies and these have been compiled and condensed with Eclipse Award winners by the widely respected The Blood-Horse magazine.

Most awards originated in 1936. A Horse of the Year award was created by a poll of the staff of The New York Morning Telegraph and its sister newspaper, Daily Racing Form. At the same time a rival poll was organized by the Baltimore-based Turf and Sport Digest magazine. Starting in 1950, the Thoroughbred Racing Associations (TRA) began naming its own champion, selecting its winners from votes by racing secretaries from member tracks across the United States. In 1971, Daily Racing Form and TRA made an agreement with the National Turf Writers Association to merge into one set of awards, called the Eclipse Awards.

Champions prior to 1936 were selected retrospectively by a panel of experts as published by The Blood-Horse magazine.

Did you know?

The only horse not crowned Horse of the Year the year he swept the Triple Crown was Omaha in 1935. Discovery, a 4-year-old, won 11 of 19 starts that year, and beat Omaha (third) by 12 lengths in that year's Brooklyn Handicap on June 22 – the first of eight straight stakes triumphs.

Four Kentucky Derby winners are two-time Horse of the Year winners: Whirlaway (1941-42), Secretariat (1972-73), Affirmed (1978-79) and California Chrome (2014, '16).

A Kentucky Derby winner has been crowned Horse of the Year after its 3-year-old season on nine occasions: Old Rosebud (1917), Exterminator (1922), Whirlaway (1942), Swaps (1956), Affirmed (1979), Spectacular Bid (1980), Ferdinand (1987), Alysheba (1988) and California Chrome (2016).
