Brooks Nader Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Cover Model

Born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Brooks Nader is the epitome of the All American Girl Next Door. The eldest of four daughters, all less than five years apart, Brooks, affectionately known as "Brooksie," has always defied the stereotype of a traditional Southern belle.

Brooks and her sisters enjoyed an idyllic small town southern upbringing. From enjoying their bucolic surroundings riding horses, mastering the art of gumbo alongside their grandmother and mother, and enthusiastically engaging in outdoor sports, the Nader sisters epitomized a tight-knit family characterized by boundless love and contagious exuberance, with Brooks at the helm.

Brooks began her adult life attending Tulane University to obtain a degree in Finance. While interning in the finance industry in New York, Brooks was scouted by a top modeling agency. Seizing the opportunity, Brooks swiftly inked her first modeling contract and embarked on a meteoric rise in the fashion world, securing coveted placements with prestigious publications including Elle, GRAZIA, and appearances in campaigns for renowned brands including La Perla, Laura Mercier, Maybelline, Clarins, and Covergirl within her inaugural year.

Driven by an unwavering ambition, Brooks attended an open casting for the legendary Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Issue in 2018 and was selected by the iconic Christie Brinkley as "her favorite" model applicant. Subsequently, Brooks made her debut in the 2019 SI Swimsuit edition, captured through the lens of acclaimed photographer Yu Tsai. This marked the beginning of a remarkable journey, with Brooks gracing the pages of the SI Swimsuit Issue for four consecutive years from 2018 to 2022.

In a crowning achievement, Brooks most recently made her 5th and SI Swim appearance as the coverstar of the 2023 edition of the legendary magazine. Brooks has had yet another incredibly successful year, having attended the 95th Academy Awards along with fashion weeks worldwide, as well as starring in campaigns for international brands including Stuart Weitzman, Victorias Secret, DKNY, Tommy Hilfiger and more.

With her infectious optimism and boundless energy, Brooks Nader continues to inspire and uplift those around her, embodying the spirit of resilience, determination, and triumph. Brooks is proud to remain a New Yorker, where she has recently recruited her 3 younger sisters, Mary Holland, Grace Ann, and Sarah Jane to move to the big apple and follow in her modeling footsteps. Currently, Brooks is proud to remain a New Yorker and still keeps herself grounded and of service for charities that are close to her heart like City Harvest where she is a celebrity ambassador.
