ARTIST TYLER ROBERTSON CHOSEN FOR 2025 ‘OFFICIAL ART OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY’

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Monday, Nov. 18, 2024) – A classic and colorful painting by Tyler Robertson has been formally unveiled by Churchill Downs Racetrack as the 2025 “Official Art of the Kentucky Derby.”

Joining the ranks of Leroy Neiman, Trish Biddle and Romero Britto in this storied art program, Louisville-based artist Robertson is known for his dynamic sporting art, bold colors and palette knife techniques to incorporate classical aesthetics and symbolism that add depth and narrative to his expressive style.

Robertson’s bright artwork for the 151st Kentucky Derby presented by Woodford Reserve celebrates the iconic image of horses running into the first turn with the historic Churchill Downs clubhouse and famous Twin Spires in the background.

A former Louisville elementary school teacher for nearly 20 years, Robertson is inspired by contemporary, modern and stylized art. Previously, he was an officially licensed artist for the 2024 PGA Championship at Valhalla Golf Club, and he recently exhibited “A Hero’s Journey: a contemporary study of jockeys” in London. His love for horse racing developed while attending the University of Louisville in 2001.

Robertson will be at Churchill Downs on Friday, Nov. 29 to sign prints of his artwork. The artist signing will take place in the Churchill Downs Store, located just inside the Paddock Gate, between 2-4 p.m.

“We are thrilled to showcase Tyler’s talent as this year’s artist,” said Casey C. Ramage, Vice President of Marketing and Partnerships, Churchill Downs Racetrack. “His artwork celebrates the iconic spectacle of the Kentucky Derby through his vibrant, visual style and brings a fresh perspective that fans will cherish for generation to come.”

Robertson’s “Official Art of the Kentucky Derby” will be featured on the 2025 Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks official racing programs and a variety of merchandise.

“I’m incredibly honored to be named the official artist for 151st running of the Kentucky Derby and join the legacy of artists who’ve captured this iconic event,” Robertson said. “As a sporting artist focused on Thoroughbreds, this is a thrilling opportunity to share my style and celebrate the power and elegance of these athletes on such a prestigious stage.”

Prints and select merchandise will be available for purchase at www.KentuckyDerbyStore.com starting on Friday, Nov. 29.
