Name Origin: The race was named for the former Louisville Thoroughbred breeding and racing farm that dominated the American race scene in the early 1900s. George J. Long, a wealthy foundry owner, purchased Bashford Manor Farm in 1887 and developed his Thoroughbred operation that provided him two Derby wins as an owner, 1892 and 1906, and three as a breeder, 1892, 1899 and 1906. In addition, Bashford Manor also won the Kentucky Oaks with Selika in 1894 and Kathleen in 1915. The original Wilder family owned Bashford Manor. The Wilders were direct descendants of Lord Baltimore, whose English home was also called Bashford Manor. Long died in 1930 and the farm was eventually sold in 1973 to make way for the development of a mall complex, fittingly named Bashford Manor, that formally closed in 2003.

*-Favorite . . . H-Horse of the Year . . . D-Kentucky Derby winner . . . 2-Champion 2-Year-Old Colt . . . Race for 2-Year-Old colts and geldings from 1902-31 and 1939-88 . . . Open to both sexes from 1932-38 and 1989-present . . . Race was moved to Ellis Park in 2023. . . Just nine days after winning the 2025 Bashford Manor, Romeo sold for a sale record $1.7 million to bloodstock agent Mahmud Mouni (active with the Libyan partnership Tagermeen Racing) from the Paramount Sales consignment at the Fasig-Tipton July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale. “We are planning to send the horse to Steve Asmussen,” Mouni said. “We would like to have a chance with the next few races and to the Breeders’ Cup this year. But our main plan is for Saudi Arabia next year and maybe the Derby in Dubai. This is too many plans. I will ask the trainer what is best. But the main issue is to go to the Middle East for 2026.” Of the colt’s final price, Mouni said, “I was shocked. We were expecting $750,000 to $1 million.”
