Race is named in honor of Eugene D. Wood, a New York State politician and horse racing enthusiast who had been the founder and past president of the defunct Jamaica Racetrack... Run at Jamaica, 1925-59...No horse from the Wood ran in the 2011 Kentucky Derby. A left hind leg injury to 2011 winner Toby's Corner was discovered on Monday of Derby Week that prevented him from running. A popped splint bone in the left foreleg discovered shortly after the race sidelined runner-up Arthur's Tale. Third-place finisher Uncle Mo was scratched on Oaks Day after a rare liver disorder was discovered ... 2010 runaway winner Eskendereya was declared from the Derby six days before the race due to a soft-tissue injury to his left foreleg ... 2009 winner I Want Revenge was scratched on Derby Day at 9 a.m. after filling was discovered in his left front ankle
