SOVEREIGNTY, WHITE ABARRIO, BAEZA SETTLE IN AT CHURCHILL DOWNS FOR $2 MILLION STEPHEN FOSTER

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Wednesday, June 24, 2026) – The stars of Saturday’s $2 million Stephen Foster (Grade I) have assembled beneath the Twin Spires as reigning Horse of the Year and Kentucky Derby (GI) winner Sovereignty, Grade I winner Baeza and Breeders’ Cup Classic (GI) and Pegasus World Cup (GI) winner White Abarrio all took to the track Wednesday morning for their final preparations ahead of the summer’s biggest dirt showdown.

Godolphin’s Sovereignty and C R K Stable and Grandview Equine’s Baeza, both trained by Hall of Famer Bill Mott, arrived at Churchill Downs early Tuesday morning from Saratoga Race Course and trained for the first time over the Louisville oval Wednesday.

C2 Racing Stable, Gary Barber and La Milagrosa Stable’s White Abarrio arrived Monday from Gulfstream Park and jogged Tuesday before galloping Wednesday morning. Trainer Saffie Joseph Jr. was on hand alongside family members and several members of the ownership group.

“It’s really exciting to be back here and we’re really looking forward to Saturday,” Joseph said. “The horse has settled in well and everything has gone according to plan.”

BloodHorse first reported Wednesday that Joseph’s other entrants, Forged Steel and Navajo Warrior, would not ship in for the race.

Winchell Thoroughbreds’ Dubai World Cup (GI) winner Magnitude, who has been based at Churchill Downs since returning from Dubai in late March, continued his preparations for the race and galloped at approximately 7:30 a.m. for Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen.

“It’s an awesome race,” Asmussen said. “The stars of racing have assembled. Magnitude still has more to prove but I know he has a lot of confidence in himself by the way he’s prepared going into the race.”

Willy D’s, who’s based at Churchill Downs, is cross-entered in Saturday’s $250,000 Texas Turf Classic Stakes at Lone Star Park. Trainer Mike Maker said a decision is pending which spot he’ll run.

The 45th running of the Stephen Foster is led by 6-5 morning-line favorite Sovereignty. White Abarrio was installed as the 3-1 second choice, followed by Magnitude at 7-2 and Baeza at 6-1.

The complete field for the Stephen Foster from the rail out (with jockey, trainer and morning-line odds):

- Willy D’s (Luis Saez, Mike Maker, 20-1)
- White Abarrio (Irad Ortiz Jr., Joseph, 3-1)

WORLD-CLASS FOSTER FIELD ASSEMBLED – Three of the top five-ranked dirt horses in the world have entered the Stephen Foster. Reigning Horse of the Year and 2025 Kentucky Derby (GI) winner Sovereignty returns to the scene of his memorable crowning achievement in last year’s “Run for the Roses” to face $12 million Dubai World Cup (GI) winner Magnitude, $1.25 million Oaklawn Handicap (GII) winner White Abarrio. The trio are ranked in both the top five of the Longines’ World’s Best Racehorse (Dirt) rankings and NTRA Top Thoroughbred Poll.

As of Wednesday morning, Grade II Gold Cup winner Forged Steel and Grade III Pimlico Special winner Forged Steel were not expected to ship from their base at trainer Saffie Joseph Jr.’s Saratoga barn.

FOSTER PURSE DOUBLED TO $2 MILLION – On May 20, Churchill Downs officials announced the purse for its marquee race for older horses, the Grade I Stephen Foster, was doubled from $1 million to $2 million and billed as the “Summer Showdown.”

“Stephen Foster Day has grown tremendously over the last several years attracting some of the world’s best horses, and this purse boost helps solidify our closing weekend as a must-see premier racing event,” said Mike Anderson, President of Churchill Downs Racetrack. “Firmly positioned in late June with lucrative prize money on the line, the Stephen Foster is an ideal summertime race for the best Thoroughbreds to compete at historic Churchill Downs. We truly believe horsemen and women, as well as horse racing fans around the world, will enthusiastically respond to this Summer Showdown.”

FOSTER IS A FEATHER IN ONE’S CAP – Four horses have used victories in the Stephen Foster as part of their resumés in Horse of the Year campaigns: Black Tie Affair (1991), Saint Liam (2005), Curlin (2008) and Gun Runner (2017). In addition, two Foster runners-up were crowned Horse of the Year: Mineshaft (2003) and Wise Dan (2012).

FOSTER STAKES RECORD IS 26 YEARS OLD – Victory Gallop owns the Stephen Foster stakes record for 1 1/8 miles of 1:47.28 established in 1999 when he cruised to a five-length victory over Nite Dreamer, Littlebitlively and 1997 Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm. Victory Gallop’s time was a track record until last year when Gould’s Gold clocked 1:47.26 on May 17. The fastest 1 1/8 miles during this year’s Spring Meet is 1:48.80 by 4-year-old Tiztastic on May 9.

REMEMBERING LAST YEAR’S FOSTER – Last year’s Stephen Foster was one of the best races of 2025 when Mindframe, winner of the $1 million Churchill Downs (GI) on the Kentucky Derby undercard, defeated Breeders’ Cup Classic (GI) winner and Champion 3-Year-Old Male Sierra Leone by one length. Oaklawn Handicap (GII) winner First Mission was third, Kentucky Derby 150 (GI) winner Mystik Dan was fourth and Dubai World Cup (GI) winner Hit Show was fifth.

FOSTER TELEVISION COVERAGE – The Stephen Foster will be part of a two-hour broadcast on NBCSN and Peacock in conjunction with FanDuel TV from 4:30-6:30 p.m. (all times Eastern). Christina Blacker, Anthony Pascale and Joe Talamo will anchor the FanDuel TV-produced broadcast on the desk at Churchill Downs while Scott Hazelton, Caton Bredar, Andie Biancone and Dave Weaver will be on-site with exclusive interviews, handicapping insights and behind-the-scenes footage throughout the card. Coverage of the entire 12-race card will be available on FanDuel TV with a first post of 12:45 p.m. The 4:30-6:30 p.m. coverage also will be streamed on NBC Sports NOW, a free FAST channel on NBCSports.com and the NBC Sports app.

SPECIAL FOSTER DAY WAGERS – Saturday’s 12-race Stephen Foster Day program will include a trio of special wagers – all with a low 15% takeout.

The $3 All-Stakes Turf Pick 3, which handled $142,769 last year, returns and will link the American Derby (Race 8 at 4:36 p.m.), Wise Dan (Race 10 at 5:43 p.m.) and Tepin (Race 12 at 6:44 p.m.). New this year is a $1 All-Stakes Turf Pick 4 that includes the Anchorage (Race 5 at 2:55 p.m.), American Derby, Wise Dan and Tepin as well as a special $5 Double encompassing the Fasig-Tipton Fleur de Lis (Race 7 at 4:04 p.m.) and Stephen Foster (Race 11 at 6:14 p.m.).

All told, Stephen Foster Day features 12 races, including seven stakes contests, with a betting menu that also features four Pick 5s (Races 1-5, 3-7, 5-9 and 8-12); four Pick 4s (Races 2-5, 4-7, 6-9 and 9-12); the 20-cent All-Stakes Derby City 6 Jackpot (Races 7-12 with a $126,361 carryover as of Wednesday); the lottery-style $1 Jackpot 8 (Race 12 with a $205,217 carryover as of Wednesday); and Odd vs. Even wagering (all eligible races).

Foster Day produces large betting pools and the chance at huge payday.

Last year’s six-horse Foster race Win, Place and Show pool totaled $1,445,610, while the Exacta pool reached $659,815, the 50-cent Trifecta pool handled $277,300 and the 10-cent Superfecta pool totaled $161,600. The late 50-cent All-Stakes Pick 5 pool was $993,774 and the late 50-cent All-Stakes Pick 4 handled $522,422. Additionally, the Derby City 6 Jackpot, which had a $1,314,893 carryover, took $1,165,274 in new bets.

FOSTER PURSE STRUCTURE – Owners paid $20,000 to enter their horses into the Stephen Foster and will pay another $20,000 to start, which equates to 2% of the total purse. If all seven entrants start, first prize is expected to be $1 million with $450,000 to second, $250,000 to third, $140,000 to fourth, $100,000 to fifth and $30,000 each to the sixth and seventh place finishers.

The public can support Gallop for Good by donating to participating organizations through <https://churchilldowns.com/gallopforgood>. Donations may be matched or boosted through additional fundraising incentives.

Supporters can also purchase dining and reserved seating tickets for Stephen Foster Day at Churchill Downs with $5 from every ticket directly benefiting the organizations participating in Gallop for Good through the Churchill Downs Foundation. Eligible tickets may be purchased at <https://www.gofevo.com/group/GallopforGood>.

“Thoroughbred aftercare reflects our industry’s ongoing commitment to the welfare of horses during and after their racing careers,” said Claire Simms, CDI’s Senior Director of Corporate Social Responsibility. “Through Gallop for Good, we are proud to help amplify the work of aftercare organizations across the country and provide an easy way for donors and industry partners to support safe, dignified futures for retired racehorses.”

The first six-furlong $120,000 maiden special weight for 2-year-olds on the year at Churchill Downs is Saturday's first race. The winner of the race has gone on to win a graded stakes event eight times in the last 20 years, including 2005 Hopeful (GI) winner First Samurai; 2009 Forego (GI) winner Pyro; 2009 Iroquois (GIII) winner Theskyhasnolimit; 2010 Sanford (GII) winner Maybesomaybenot; 2014 Dominion Day (GIII) winner Sky Captain; 2016 Sanford (GIII) winner Bitumen; 2021 Hopeful (GI) winner Gunite; and 2022 Saratoga Special (GII) winner Damon's Mound.

Last year's winner was favored Dazzle d'Oro ($5.88) and the runner-up was Saturday's fourth race first-level allowance entrant Blackout Time, who'd run second in last fall's Breeders' Futurity (GI). The sixth-place finisher was American Derby entrant Alpyland, who'd win the $175,000 Dania Beach, $125,000 Columbia and $400,000 Penn Mile (GIII) on turf.

Two years ago, Keep It Easy ($48.58), entered in a second-level allowance Saturday (Race 6), was the winner and he'd finish last of eight after a bad stumble in the Saratoga Special (GII) at 5-2. He'd go on to win the $225,000 Ed Brown Stakes by 5 ¼ lengths. The favored fifth-place finisher was Sandman, who later won the $1.5 million Arkansas Derby (GI) before finishing seventh in the Kentucky Derby and third in the Preakness (GI).

FOUR STAKES, FORCE-OUTS HIGHLIGHT SUNDAY'S CLOSING DAY CARD – Four stakes races led by the $300,000 Hanshin presented by JRA (Grade III) highlight closing day of the 2026 Spring Meet. It shares the spotlight with the $250,000 Maxfield (GIII), $225,000 Bashford Manor (Listed) and $225,000 Debutante (Listed).

Tour Player, Moonlight and Dragoon Guard – the top three finishers in the $200,000 Knicks Go on the May 2 Kentucky Derby undercard – return to face $2 million Riyadh Dirt Sprint (GII) winner Imagination in a high-caliber field of 10 milers in the Hanshin.

Grade I Del Mar Futurity winner and Breeders' Cup Juvenile (GI) third Brant cuts back to seven furlongs for his comeback in the $250,000 Maxfield (GIII) after finishing a disappointing sixth as the 4-5 favorite in March's $250,000 San Felipe (GII) at Santa Anita. The field also includes Gotham (GIII) runner up, Pat Day Mile (GII) fifth and top Ohio-bred Crown the Buckeye.

Babies will also be in the spotlight with a pair of juvenile stakes to be run for the 125th time and a six-furlong maiden special weight for fillies. A trio of dominant debut-winning colts – Hey Tuff Guy, Captain Luke and Southern California invader He Is No Lie – head the $225,000 Bashford Manor (Listed). In the $225,000 Debutante (Listed), trainer Steve Asmussen will attempt to win the fillies race for a sixth time with Epic Reign, who won at first asking by 4 ¼ lengths.

The card also has a third-level allowance race for 3-year-olds and up at 1 1/16 miles that features a pair of Kentucky Derby 151 alum: Chunk of Gold, the West Virginia Derby (GIII) winner and Clark (GII) third who makes his 4-year-old debut, and Publisher, who recently finished fifth in the $400,000 Steve Sexton Mile (GIII) at Lone Star Park after finishing fourth behind White Abarrio, Sovereignty and Journalism in the $1.25 million Oaklawn Handicap (GII).

Two weeks ago, Lanerie, 51, announced he would retire at the conclusion of the Spring Meet. He will leave the sport with more than 5,100 victories. His more than 35,000 mounts earned in excess of $172 million in prize money. At Churchill Downs, Lanerie won 19 riding titles between 2012-19, including 71 wins during the 38-day Spring Meet in 2012, which was a record average of 1.87 wins per day during a Spring Meet of 30 or more days. His 1,245 Churchill Downs wins is second only to legendary Hall of Famer Pat Day's 2,482 local victories.

The first of his 5,152 victories – which ranks 34th all-time in horse racing history – was aboard High Hopes Banquet on April 19, 1991 at Evangeline Downs. The first Churchill Downs win for the Lafayette, La. occurred Nov. 21, 2000 with Embraceable. His first full season at Churchill Downs was the 2003 Fall Meet, and he has ridden locally every year since 2005.

In the Lake Ouachita, Willy D's went to the front from the start, dueled up the backstretch with American Promise and slipped away from him in the final turn. ABOUT CHURCHILL DOWNS RACETRACK

Churchill Downs Racetrack ("CDRT"), the world's most legendary racetrack, has been the home of The Kentucky Derby, the longest continually held annual sporting event in the United States, since 1875. Located in Louisville, CDRT features a series of themed race days during Derby Week, including the Kentucky Oaks, and conducts Thoroughbred horse racing during three race meets in the Spring, September, and the Fall. CDRT is located on 175 acres and has a one-mile dirt track, a 7/8-mile turf track, a stabling area, and provides seating for approximately 60,000 guests. The stable area has barns sufficient to accommodate 1,400 horses and a 114-room dormitory for backstretch personnel. CDRT also has a year-round simulcast wagering facility. www.ChurchillDowns.com.
